

Warm-up: Combine the following simple sentences into one sentence. Be careful to not make it a run-on.

John walked through the door.

John hit his enormous head on the door.

He abstemiously refused to order the food from McDonald's.

He yelled at the manager because the food was too fattening.